United Kingdom: proposed amendments to all Articles of the draft Convention from III onwards

Delete the word "country" wherever it appears and substitute the word "territory".

In the case of Article VI last phrase, it will be necessary to say, "treaties affecting the territory where such award is sought to be relied on."